

Background and perspectives for your next story.

GrowFast Advisory examines the connection between people, technology and business value through ownership change. Stephen Murray is available for conversations about operating dependency, AI-enabled work, succession and the evidence behind continuity.

Company background

GrowFast Advisory helps owners, buyers and advisors examine whether business value can transfer and hold through change. The Transfer Value Assessment brings operating dependencies, supporting evidence, stated assumptions and priorities into a Proof Pack.

Stephen Murray: short biography

Stephen Murray, CEPA, is Founder and President of GrowFast Advisory. His background includes senior human capital and transformation work at companies including International Paper, KONE Americas, Coca-Cola Enterprises, Pepsi Bottling Group and Ocado. He brings that operating experience to questions of ownership transition, knowledge transfer and AI-era business value.
